

TRAINING CHECKLIST

STEP 1 | Awareness Training

- Show the training video to staff.
  - ▶ Consider inviting your state attorney general or a member of their team to conduct an in-person (or virtual) training.
  - ▶ Consider inviting elected officials to your warehouse or record remarks to show before screening the video.
- Provide staff with tip cards listing human trafficking red flags.
- Download and hang a breakroom poster on how to spot the signs of human trafficking.
- Make the training video part of your company's onboarding process.
- Fill out the completion form on the NBWA website to get your company's certificate.

Congratulations!

You're now officially Distributors Against Human Trafficking certified!

If you want to do more to help, NBWA has additional suggestions to further your impact.

STEP 2 | Community Engagement

- Use the social media toolkit to share your involvement.
- Put truck signs with the national human trafficking hotline on your delivery vehicles to spread awareness on your routes.
- Use the letter templates to notify elected officials about your involvement.
  - ▶ Examples: governors, state attorneys general, members of Congress, state legislators
- Partner with local or state non-profit organizations that are working to end human trafficking.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to NBWA for support with any of these efforts.
