Inclusion in the Online Buyer's Guide

This online guide allows distributors to search easily your products and services to grow their businesses. Your listing includes company description and links to your website or accounts.

"Partnering with NBWA over the years has proved greatly beneficial for our company. Such targeted opportunities allowing us to reach America's Beer & Beverage Distributors is something we simply cannot find anywhere else."

Hanna Hickert
Encompass Technologies
NBWA MEMBER SINCE 2007

Access to "Who's Who" Directory

This annual directory contains the most comprehensive information available and lists all beer and beverage distributors throughout the country, including key principals within the organization, contact information, as well as the beverage brands they carry.

The Buyer's Guide section of the directory lists NBWA associate members along with the products and/or services they provide to beer distributors. Associate members also have the opportunity to advertise in this valuable marketing tool.

Sponsorship & Advertising Opportunities

In addition to event sponsorship packages, there are advertising options in printed collateral and digital advertising in the NBWA weekly newsletter.

PLATINUM MEMBER EMAIL BLAST

Only NBWA platinum associate members are entitled to a once-a-year use of NBWA's distributor email list. The submitted email content will be sent by NBWA.

This is your opportunity to tell beer and beverage distributors about what you are doing!

Send Date and Time:

- When submitting your email content, you may provide a preferred send date and time. But please note that emails are scheduled on a first-come, first-serve basis, depending on the association's existing communications calendar.
- No associate member emails will be sent in the week prior to and during NBWA's Annual Convention and Legislative Conference events.

For submissions or questions, contact info@nbwa.org.

Follow these instructions and rules for “Platinum Member Email Blast” submissions:

- Format: Provide your email content in one of two formats:
 - Option 1: .ZIP file of HTML and all associated images.*
 - Option 2: A word document with all corresponding text, images and URL links.*
 - You cannot submit your email content as a PDF or single image.*
- Sender Info: In addition to the email body content, please provide the following information:
 - From: [Your Company Name]*
 - Preferred Subject Line (If not supplied, NBWA will use the subject line “A Message from NBWA Associate Member [Your Company Name]”)*
 - Preview Text: (If not supplied, NBWA will use the first sentence in the email content)*
- Disclaimer: Please note, each “Platinum Member Email Blast” will include the following disclaimer:
 - “This message is being sent to NBWA distributor members from [your company name], a platinum associate member of the association. To recognize platinum associate members for their high level of participation in the association, they receive additional benefits that connect them with NBWA's distributor members and provide extra value for their investment in the association.”*

ASSOCIATE MEMBER VIEWPOINT

NBWA associate members are invited to submit educational articles quarterly for inclusion in the weekly email newsletter and posted on the NBWA website.

Follow these instructions and rules for “Associate Member Viewpoint” submissions:

- Content: Articles are subject to editorial review by NBWA. The contents of the article are to be educational in nature demonstrating your value and knowledge, discussing an industry topic of importance to beer and beverage distributors, and not a sales pitch. Please include a title for the viewpoint article, along with the author’s name, title and contact information.
- Length: Articles should be no longer than 1,200 words.
- Photos: If possible, please submit photos relevant to the topic discussed or headshots for the author.
- Submission Deadlines: Submissions are accepted on a rolling basis but are limited to one per quarter. NBWA staff will review your submission one time to ensure the material is educational and provide one round of feedback – submissions cannot be ad content. Associate members will then have the opportunity to resubmit updated educational content for publication. If the second submission still is not focused on education, NBWA will be unable to publish the content and the member will have the opportunity to resubmit the following quarter. Once the content has been reviewed, NBWA staff will work to publish the viewpoint article within two weeks, depending on the association’s communications calendar.
- Recent submission topics include the importance of retail data and insights in the bevalc supply chain, and fleet adaptability. You can find examples of published submissions, here and here.

For submissions or questions, contact info@nbwa.org.

INDUSTRY RESOURCES

New! Online Member Portal

The enhanced online dashboard will provide access to all of NBWA's membership-only resources.

Data & Insights from Chief Economist

NBWA's monthly Beer Purchasers' Index (BPI) is the only forward-looking indicator for the industry to measure expected beer demand (one month forward) in the marketplace.

Beer Serves America Report

This biennial study estimates the full scope of economic contributions made by the complete beer industry to the U.S. economy.

#BeersToThat

This industry campaign celebrates beer moments to strengthen the category.

Beer First Tools

The online Beer First toolkit uses data to show how beer is a valuable category that brings consumers to their outlets and generates lift, velocity and profits.

Finance Training Program

This on-demand training consisting of 40+ lessons is created specifically for distributor owners, managers and their staff.

Distributor Productivity Report

This biennial benchmark "cost of doing business" study contains invaluable, industry-wide financial and operational analysis gathered by comparing a company's financial standing with other beer distributorships across the country.

Compensation & Benefits Study

The biennial study is a comparative analysis to give distributors a priceless management tool for measuring a company's compensation and benefits practices against industry peers.

Cross-Industry Compensation Study for Driver and Warehouse Positions

The results of this 2020 study provides comparative compensation levels and benefits practices from other industries.

BREW & Alliance for Women in Beer

BREW & the Alliance for Women in Beer aim to bring together women in the beer and beverage industry. The Alliance focuses their efforts on all 3 tiers and BREW is built on building up Distributor members.

Safety Training Videos

These videos feature real-life scenarios for beer distribution employees and focus on areas where beer distributors experience the highest insurance claim rates.

EVENTS & TRADE SHOW

Meet your next business partner or strengthen your relationships with existing clients!

Held each year in the fall, the NBWA Annual Convention provides valuable education programs for the beer and beverage industry and connects distributors to vendors, new products and technologies.

NBWA associate members are eligible to submit seminar topics, reserve exhibitor, hospitality and advertising space at NBWA's Annual Convention. Space is based on membership level with platinum members receiving first priority.

- Over 3,000 attendees including owners and those with buying power.
- 100,000 square feet of trade show floor to display your innovative ideas and products.
- Opportunity to share your expertise during the convention seminar program.

“The value of the NBWA is that you can come and see literally, hundreds of people. As a business owner who is tight on time, you get to form those relationships face to face because everybody is here. That’s one of the reasons we’re always making sure that we make time to display because it provides you opportunities to see people like no other convention.”
